Data Protection Consent Form

Friends of Henfield Museum

As an organisation, by law we must comply with the General Data Protection Regulation effective from May 2018.

You give your consent for us to keep your basic membership details which include name, postal and email addresses and phone number, in order to contact you and send you newsletters. This information will be seen and used by committee members only. This is under the 'consent' lawful basis of the General Data Protection Regulation 2018.

We will not share your contact information with others. Any email sent to the whole membership will be via a blind copy and hence will not release your personal details to other members. We will only use your details to send information about the Friends' news and events or when a committee member wishes to contact you directly.

We will keep this information as long as you are a member, or until you ask us to no longer keep it.
