

HENFIELD HISTORY GROUP

Programme of Events 2024/2025

Meetings are held on the second Tuesday of the month.

At the Henfield Hall, BN5 9EQ

Refreshments served from 7:30pm. Talks start at 8pm

14th May 2024	'Ticket to Murder' - Peter Blood Retired barrister Peter Blood returns to thrill us with another murder trial from the annals of British crime.
11th June 2024	'The South at Work' - Geoffrey Mead A look at the variation in the work of our region and how that has changed over the centuries.
9th July 2024	'Brighton's Regent Foundry-' David Green. This 19th Century enterprise is interwoven with Brighton's history. A fascinating story is revealed.
August 2023	No Meeting
10th September 2024	'Samuel Williams, a Village Labourer-' Dr John Kay Life as he knew it - a window into the life of a Ringmer 'character' who was born in the reign of George III.
8th October 2024	'Shoreham Fort - Past, Present and Future-' Gary Baines A visual presentation delving into the Fort's unique history.
12th November 2024	'Folk Music, Songs and Singers in West Sussex' - Chris Hare. A history, and demonstration, of folk music in our county.
10th December 2024	'I'll be Sober in the Morning-' Tony Harris Winston Churchill is brought to life with history and humour. Our Christmas Event.
14th January 2025	'Roman Villas in Sussex-' Dr David Rudling FSA Bignor and the Springfield/Preston Road Villa in Brighton are included in this talk.
11th February 2025	'The Story of Highdown Hill-' James Sainsbury The history of the site including the Bronze Age, Iron Age, the Romans,Anglo-Saxons and 18th century smuggling.
11th March 2025	'Life Above a Railway Tunnel-' David Porter A history of the North Portal of Clayton Tunnel.

Everyone Welcome

Admission £3 Non-Members (Members by Subscription)

Enquiries to Maureen Fletcher, Tel. 01273-492194