

11th April 2023	AGM - Followed by ' A History of British TV Crime Fighters ' Pete Allen , theatre director and film-maker
9th May 2023	' Sentence of Death ' Retired barrister Peter Blood returns to thrill us with another famous murder trial from the annals of British crime.
13th June 2023	' London's Lost Route to the Sea ' - Tony Pratt talks about 18th century entrepreneurs who planned to use the Wey and Arun, linked by canals, to provide a direct trading route to the Sussex coast - avoiding French warships.
11th July 2023	' Sussex During World War I ' - Ian Everest Daily life as the county became a supply depot for the front line and a reception centre for the wounded.
August 2023	No Meeting
12th September 2023	' Grace Kimmins and her Chailey Heritage ' - Ros Black The story of Grace's many and varied achievements, and her lasting legacy
10th October 2023	' Primitive Money and the Origins of Coinage ' - Dr David Rudling FSA From shells to metal coins, and from Ancient China, India and Greek and Roman times.
14th November 2023	' Cross Ridge Dykes and other Bronze Age Monuments on the South Downs ' - Dr Judie English will present to us following her recent field archaeology project
12th December 2023	' Victorian Street Life ' - Delia Taylor We will hear about Victorian Street Life - with a Christmas twist
9th January 2024	' The Wealden Iron Industry from the Iron Age to the early 19th Century ' - Jeremy Hodgkinson The historical development and importance of the industry, including raw materials and the technology it used
13th February 2024	' Bygone Sussex ' - Nichola Court , Archivist, WSCC Records Office This talk will include photos of Henfield
12th March 2024	' Glorious Goodwood ' - James Peill This talk charts the fortunes of an aristocratic family from the 17th century, and includes the sporting traditions which remain today
9th April 2024	AGM followed by ' Lucie Bishop's films ' - Alan Barwick Lucie was a founder of Henfield Museum